

2011 'NEAR' CONFERENCE

10th – 12th November 2011

Powerscourt Ritz Hotel, Enniskerry, Co. Wicklow, Ireland

Ireland's First International Behavioural Health Conference

Our goal is to introduce new concepts and the latest thinking around addiction, recovery and mental health. We have invited leading International and local speakers who will be discussing the latest neurological developments and effective treatments for the various aspects of addiction and recovery.

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS

There will be 25 speakers covering a myriad of topics such as:

Opening Day Guest Speaker: Alastair Campbell

Alastair Campbell is a writer, communicator and strategist best known for his role as former British Prime Minister Tony Blair's spokesman. He received the Mind Champion of the Year award in recognition of his work to break down the stigma around mental illness.

John Southworth Caroline Smith	} Dealing with Co-Dependency in Interventions
Dr Jack Kuo	Internet/Gaming Addiction
Stephen Rowan	Addiction in the Family: Are we ready for a paradigm shift
Dr Colin O' Gara	Pathological Gambling
Rolande Anderson	Addiction in Practice: Doctors' primary role
Rory O' Connor	Addiction Among Health Professionals a UK Historical Overview
Prof. Carlton Erickson	How Neuroscience Helps Us Understand Addiction Recovery
Dr Joe Barry	Evolution of Provision of Addiction Recovery in Ireland and Pointers For The Future
Dr Susan Campling	Sexual Addiction and Domestic Violence
Dr Shelley Uram	Understanding Psychological Trauma and the Brain
Judy Crane	Nuts and Bolts of Trauma Treatment
Dr Michael Paterson	Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR): what it is, what it does and how it can help with addictions
Dr Conor Farren	Dual Diagnosis: The New Frontier
Ewa Osiatynska	Psychological Aspects of Family Recovery
Anne Twohig	A Mindfulness Approach to Recovery and Relapse Prevention
Paddy Creedon	The impact of Addiction and Substance Abuse in Corporate Ireland
Brendan Murphy	Making a Difference: Drug and Alcohol Interventions within the Gaelic Athletic Association

CME/CPD POINTS

We will be providing certificates of attendance

PRICING

€300 (€250 if booked before 15th September)
Includes; 3 days/25+ International Speakers and Workshops, Full access to the conference and seminars, lunch and coffee breaks

REGISTER NOW

To register as a delegate and for further details please visit our conference website www.nearconference.com